

Read Across Jamaica Day

JAMAICA NATIONAL

Grades two and three students of Kingdom Kids Preparatory participating in Read Across Jamaica Day for Education Week.

Reading is a very important part of developing young minds. Tuesday, May 5 was Read Across Jamaica Day, which is observed during Education Week, May 3-8, to promote reading at every level for literacy and for life.

Cell-fie time! Dr Renée Rattray, director, education programmes at the JN Foundation, makes time for a cell-fie with grade-four students at the Port Maria Primary School in St Mary.
