Governor General Sir Patrick Allen (second left) makes a point about the book, 'Behind The Scenes At King's House 1873-2010', to author Jackie Ranston (second right), as she examines the book with Earl Jarrett (left), general manager of Jamaica National Building Society (JNBS), and Dennis Lalor, chairman of the King's House Foundation. Occasion was the official launch of the book last week Thursday at King's House. Proceeds from the sale of the book, which was commissioned by JNBS, will be donated to the King's House Foundation for the ongoing maintenance of the buildings.
