

Schools, hospital get help

JAMAICA NATIONAL undertook some 20 projects on Labour Day. Here are some pictorial highlights.

CONTRIBUTED PHOTOS

Nichola Kesson, operations supervisor, Jamaica National Michi MoneyShop, applies a coat of paint to one of the courtyard benches at the Half-Way Tree Primary School as part of Jamaica National's Labour Day activities.

Shadae Ashlei, Action Jamaica volunteer, pays keen attention to details as she paints a section of the St Ann's Bay Hospital on Labour Day. The JN Foundation and the Jamaica Hotel and Tourist Association partnered to give the hospital a facelift.