

Tahj Simpson cops JNBS scholarship for St Bess

TAHJ SIMPSON is the Jamaica National Building Society (JNBS) Foundation scholarship recipient for St Elizabeth.

Tahj was one of 31 students who were awarded a five-year scholarship and were officially recognised as JN Foundation scholars at a reception held at the JNBS Half-Way Tree branch on September 13. Thirteen of the awardees were children of JN Group employees.

Some 498 GSAT students, including students in the JN School Savers programme and employees' children, have benefited from the JNBS Scholarship Programme since its inception 32 years ago.

CONTRIBUTED

Tahj Simpson, former student of Brompton Primary and first-form student at Munro College, accepts his Jamaica National Building Society Foundation scholar certificate and gift from Tanya Pringle, senior corporate communications manager, Jamaica National Building Society.
