

JN takes a united stand

CONTRIBUTED

Rose Miller (second left), grants manager at JN Foundation, presents Dr Marcia Forbes, incoming chair of United Way of Jamaica, with a cheque to assist with disaster relief rehabilitation for the Caribbean islands affected by the recent hurricanes. Sharing in the moment are (from left) Winsome Wilkins, chief executive officer of the United Way of Jamaica, and Ian Forbes, outgoing chairman of the United Way of Jamaica. JN Foundation had launched a campaign in October to raise funds that would assist Caribbean islands devastated by hurricanes Irma and Maria. The campaign was called 'Help Our Caribbean Neighbours'.